BEACON JOURNAL; every evening except Sunday, and SUMMIT CO. BEACON, Thursdays; republican; eight pages 18x24; subscription—daily $3, weekly $1; established—daily 1869, weekly 1889; Beacon Journal Co., publishers.

Circulation—Daily: In 1895, G. In 1896, G. In 1897, Y. In 1898, G. Actual average for 1899, 7,380; for 1900, 7,400; for a year ending with February, 1902, 7,542.

Publisher's announcement.—For month ending Aug. 30, 1902, the BEACON JOURNAL'S circulation was ONLY 7,831; for year ending Aug. 30, 1902, ONLY 7,726—see record above for four years, showing steady, conservative increase, proportionate with city's growth. Guaranteeing these figures to be absolutely correct, we further guarantee the BEACON JOURNAL'S circulation to be DOUBLE that of any other daily medium circulating in this community. All we ask is—INVESTIGATE. It's always welcome with us. New $15,000 Hoe press; four machines (double number used by any other paper); EXCLUSIVE leased wire Associated Press service; all features going to make up a superior newspaper; the field wherein greatest circulation and greatest influence may naturally be found (paper's republican—so is city, county and section of State), explain why it is so NOW and always was so, that Akron's a one paper town, and that paper the BEACON JOURNAL. Local merchants use more space in this paper than in any other, and pay double rates paid any other. The files will show—any merchant will tell. Get the files, ask the merchants. There's no "lag" about the BEACON JOURNAL'S record, this year or any other year, and it's a black and white record, susceptible of proof.

Publisher's announcement.—The paper that was the leader in its town five years ago may lag behind to day, says an authority on advertising. Even one year may witness astonishing changes. The Akron DAILY DEMOCRAT is the acknowledged leader in its field, and carries more local and foreign advertising than all other local papers combined. This wasn't always so, but it is now. The DAILY DEMOCRAT's daily average circulation was 5,033 for July, 5,213 for August, and 5,571 for September—the increase being the direct result of improvement in the quality of the paper. Send for sample copies and advertising rates of this hustling paper in a hustling manufacturing city. THE AKRON DEMOCRAT COMPANY, Akron, O.

Publisher's announcement.—The ENQUIRER will distribute, November 4, 1902, $107,000 in cash to such of its readers who care to engage in an intellectual and profitable study—a contest which will familiarize people with the science of the government of the State of Ohio. It is the aim of the ENQUIRER's management to increase the circulation to over 100,000 daily, 200,000 Sunday and 800,000 weekly. The ENQUIRER has for years been the most influential newspaper in Ohio, and each copy of the daily and Sunday is sold for five cents. It is absolutely pre-eminent and supreme in its field. It is one of the few newspapers that is so indispensable that the subscription price has been maintained and the circulation increased at the same time. Pettingill & Company, who place $2,000,000 annually, say: "One of the best values in the United States. We never place advertisements for our clients in Ohio without invariably including the ENQUIRER." A medium of tremendous power, commanding and creating in its influence, and no advertiser can afford to be out of it.

MERELY A SUGGESTION.

DEWEY has turned all eyes on The Orient and all roads now lead to the far East. The American Trader now seeks the markets of the world and each man strives to be the first in his line to reach The Orient.

This advt is designed primarily to establish a fact in commercial history and incidentally to attract business. The first issue of THE SUN appeared January 1, 1895. Over one-half of that edition was mailed to Central and South America and over 1,300 copies to The Orient. It was an experiment. The results were satisfactory to all concerned and from that time to this THE SUN has maintained its international circulation and is to day as well known and fully as much appreciated in The Orient as it is in the United States.

If you want trade in The Orient; in Central America; in South America and the colonies, advertise in THE SUN.

Twenty cents buys one agate line in THE SUN. No discounts or rebates. Count six words to the line. Use plain, unaffected English and avoid slang and colloquialisms. Small words are best. State facts and quote prices. Observe these suggestions and results are assured. We pay recognized agencies twenty per cent for business. No more, no less.

Advertisers who place their business direct will please send check with their copy.

Publisher's announcement.—The STATE'S sworn average circulation, as shown by the American Newspaper Directory for 1902, is greater than that of any other daily or Sunday newspaper published in the Carolinas. Eleven railroads radiate from Columbia, and on their early morning trains the STATE is distributed over the entire State and is thus "the morning paper" for a hundred Carolina towns. As South Carolina is far and away the leading cotton manufacturing State of the South and as Columbia is the leading cotton manufacturing city, the STATE is at the heart of the great industrial development of the South. With one electro and one contract, advertisers may cover the whole State with the STATE alone.

AT the convention of the Association of American Advertisers, held on January 29 and 30, 1902, at Delmonico's, New York City, the following resolution was passed unanimously:

It is the sense of this convention that the labor expended and the statistics obtained by the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory, during the thirty-four years of its existence, have been invaluable to advertisers. Although their definition of circulation is the number of copies printed, and not the more exhaustive and satisfactory definition recognized by this convention, which requires a knowledge of the net paid circulation and its distribution, still it is believed that this Directory more than any other has kept before advertisers the fact that a correct knowledge of circulation is essential to the successful advertiser.

Publisher's announcement.—The SATURDAY SPECTATOR succeeds the Outburst, which was established in 1892, and has never missed an issue. It published fully two-thirds of the legal notices of the county, and is recognized as a legal publication paper. Since December 21, 1901, no issue of the SATURDAY SPECTATOR has been less than 5,000 each week, and this number is guaranteed to the advertiser, or no pay. It is a wide-awake, up-to-date, newsy publication, free from scandal and vulgarity, but "prints all the news that is fit for print;" in a liberal ideaed, crisp style. Does not belong to a trust, and its editor has a soul of his own. Our Policy: Justice to all; favors to none. Our Creed: The Golden Rule.

Publisher's announcement.—A man is best known by his neighbors. A newspaper is best known by the people of the city in which it is published. This is also true of the EVENING WISCONSIN. It is used by all advertisers in the city of Milwaukee who do any general advertising at all. This is the estimate of the newspaper by the business community of the city. This can be said of very few newspapers in any city. Established 1847.

Publisher's announcement.—The city circulation alone of THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL is larger than are the combined city circulations of the two other English evening papers and larger than is the total circulation of either of those papers. The total circulation of THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL is larger than are the combined total circulations of those two papers. The circulation of THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL has been investigated for advertisers by Stuart and Young, expert bookkeepers, of Chicago, and by the Association of American Advertisers. In each case the paid circulation of THE JOURNAL was found to be larger than the circulation guaranteed to advertisers for their contracts. On each occasion both of the other evening papers refused to have their circulations investigated. The advertising charges of THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL are lower than the combined charges of those two papers. Thus advertisers who use THE JOURNAL get more circulation at less cost than is possible for them to obtain in any other way. The Journal Company. Mr. Stephen B. Smith, 30 Tribune Building, New York City. Mr. C. D. Bertolet, 705 707 Boyce Building, Chicago, Ill.

Publisher's announcement.—The Milwaukee Sentinel has a field peculiarly its own. It covers the populous and prosperous lumbering, mining, farming and manufacturing sections of Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, Southern Minnesota and Northern Iowa with special editions, reaching their several destinations two or more hours in advance even of its most enterprising Chicago rivals. Under its new management The Milwaukee Sentinel and The Sunday Sentinel have become metropolitan journals in every sense, with a model mechanical plant, embracing fourteen Mergenthaler and two five deck combination color-and-news Goss presses of latest design; unlimited business resources; unexcelled general and special news service, and an exceptionally strong editorial staff. In consequence both circulation and advertising patronage are rapidly and heavily increasing—of late—especially in case of The Sunday Sentinel. The weekly has also experienced a radical renovation for the better as a standard farm and family publication of twelve pages, four of each being devoted respectively to agricultural, household and general news and comment. It is now appropriately styled The Farmers' Sentinel.

Publisher's announcement.—The circulation of LA PRESSE is over 70,000 a day, one edition only, and is growing steadily. It is the largest circulation in Canada, without any exception (French or English). It is the French newspaper which possesses the greatest daily circulation on the whole continent of America. It stands head and shoulders above all others. It exceeds by 55,000 copies daily the circulation of the next largest French newspaper published in Canada. It exceeds by 21,000 copies daily the combined circulation of the eight other French dailies. It further exceeds by 20,000 copies that of any English daily also published in Canada. These tremendous differences thoroughly demonstrate why the advertisers in LA PRESSE are mostly all money makers.

LE JOURNAL; every morning except Sunday; French; conservative; six pages 18x24; subscription $3; established 1899; Milton MacDonald, editor; Industrial Printing Co., publishers. Office, 72 Rue St. Jacques. Circulation: Actual average for 1901 9,278.

Publisher's announcement.—Eleven thousand is now the guaranteed actual average circulation of LE JOURNAL.

Its gain monthly, since its reorganization, gives an average of 800, and is still continuing. This large increase is obtained through new methods and perfect campaigning service.

LE JOURNAL is the only French morning daily published in Canada. It has a "home" and not a "street" circulation. It is the leader in all national questions, therefore a most valuable medium to reach the most prosperous sections of Canada.

Books open to all advertisers.

II.

OVER 1,000 CIRCULATION.

ONE THOUSAND IS THE GENERAL ADVERTISER'S UNIT OF VALUE. TO THE GENERAL ADVERTISER PAPERS OF LESS THAN A THOUSAND ISSUES ARE NOT OF MUCH ACCOUNT, BECAUSE THE COST OF WATCHING CONTRACTS AND KEEPING ACCOUNTS, ADDED TO THE LOWEST OBTAINABLE PRICE (NO MATTER HOW LOW), GENERALLY MAKES THEM TOO DEAR TO BE PROFITABLE. OF ALL THE PUBLICATIONS DESCRIBED IN THIS BOOK NEARLY THREE-QUARTERS ARE RATED IN THE "JKL" CLASS, LEAVING LESS THAN SIX THOUSAND THAT ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE A CIRCULATION EACH ISSUE OF ONE THOUSAND COPIES AND UPWARDS. A CATALOGUE OF THESE HERE FOLLOWS, GIVING NAME, FREQUENCY OF ISSUE AND CIRCULATION RATING. THE YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS ALSO GIVEN IN CASES WHERE IT IS LESS THAN ONE DOLLAR.

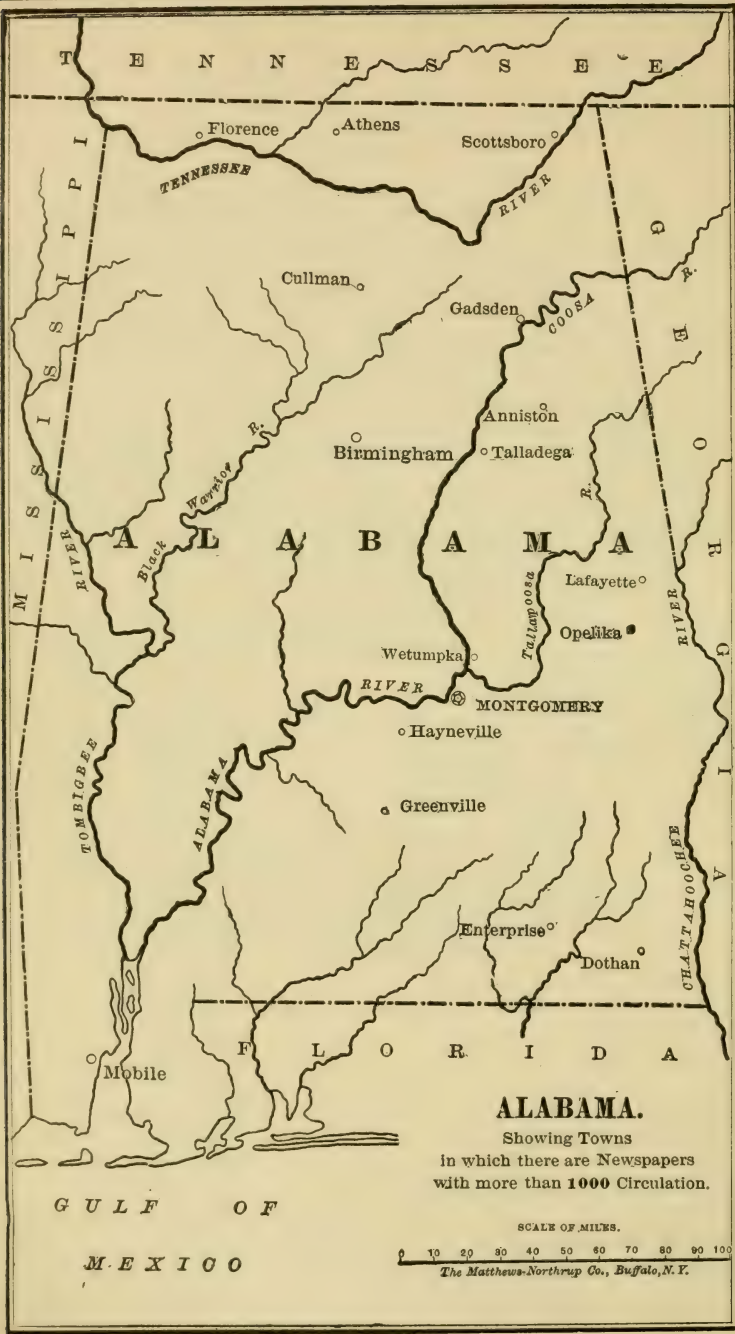

EVERY PUBLISHER OF A NEWSPAPER ENTITLED TO A HIGHER CIRCULATION RATING THAN IS ACCORDED IN THIS BOOK KNOWS THAT IT WAS HIS PRIVILEGE TO HAVE HIS EXACT FIGURES INSERTED HAD HE BEEN ABLE AND WILLING TO FURNISH THEM. IN CASES WHERE A PUBLISHER IS UNWILLING TO SUPPLY THE REQUISITE INFORMATION, THE EXPERIENCE OF THE EDITOR OF THE DIRECTORY HAS TAUGHT HIM THAT IT IS ALWAYS FOR A REASON MORE SATISFACTORY TO THE PUBLISHER THAN IT WOULD BE TO AN ADVERTISER WHO IS THINKING OF USING THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS OF THE PAPER.*

SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS.

A LIST IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER BY STATES AND TOWNS, RECAPITULATING ALL NEWSPAPERS HAVING A SUNDAY ISSUE AS CATALOGUED IN PART I.

EVERY PUBLISHER OF A NEWSPAPER ENTITLED TO A HIGHER CIRCULATION RATING THAN IS ACCORDED IN THIS BOOK KNOWS THAT IT WAS HIS PRIVILEGE TO HAVE HIS EXACT FIGURES INSERTED HAD HE BEEN ABLE AND WILLING TO FURNISH THEM. IN CASES WHERE A PUBLISHER IS UNWILLING TO SUPPLY THE REQUISITE INFORMATION, THE EXPERIENCE OF THE EDITOR OF THE DIRECTORY HAS TAUGHT HIM THAT IT IS ALWAYS FOR A REASON MORE SATISFACTORY TO THE PUBLISHER THAN IT WOULD BE TO AN ADVERTISER WHO IS THINKING OF USING THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS OF THAT PAPER.*

IV. CLASS PUBLICATIONS.

A LIST OF NEWSPAPERS AND OTHER PERIODICALS OF THE VARIOUS CLASSES, TRADES AND INTERESTS, ARRANGED IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER BY STATES AND TOWNS IN WHICH THEY ARE PUBLISHED, GIVING NAME, FREQUENCY OF ISSUE AND LATEST CIRCULATION RATING AS INDICATED IN PART I.

EVERY PUBLISHER OF A NEWSPAPER ENTITLED TO A HIGHER CIRCULATION RATING THAN IS ACCORDED IN THIS BOOK KNOWS THAT IT WAS HIS PRIVILEGE TO HAVE HIS EXACT FIGURES INSERTED HAD HE BEEN ABLE AND WILLING TO FURNISH THEM. IN CASES WHERE A PUBLISHER IS UNWILLING TO SUPPLY THE REQUISITE INFORMATION, THE EXPERIENCE OF THE EDITOR OF THE DIRECTORY HAS TAUGHT HIM THAT IT IS ALWAYS FOR A REASON MORE SATISFACTORY TO THE PUBLISHER THAN IT WOULD BE TO AN ADVERTISER WHO IS THINKING OF USING THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS OF THAT PAPER.*

THE COOKING CLUB

The only culinary publication in the United States adapted for families with limited incomes, and this means nine families out of every ten. Published at the popular price of fifty cents a year, it reaches the people that the advertiser desires most to reach. It is a lasting medium, because the housewife retains every number for almost daily reference to the great number of practical, tested recipes published in every issue. It is edited by practical, every-day cooks for every-day cooks, therefore has intrinsic value to every woman. In attractiveness it excels, as every month there is a new cover design in colors, making it attractive in appearance as well as in contents.

Published in a small city, but with a large circulation, as is shown by the record for the past year as follows:

STATE OF INDIANA, }
ELKHART COUNTY. } ss.

Before me, Dora Burns, a Notary Public, personally appeared Thomas A. Starr, who, being duly sworn, states that the circulation of THE COOKING CLUB has been as follows:

November, 17,344; December, 17,820; January, 18,976; February, 20,335; March, 22,830; April, 22,890; May, 22,980; June, 23,170; July, 23,150; August, 23,175; September, 23,220; October, 23,840.

THE 30,000 MARK

Should be reached before the subscription season of 1901-2 closes, if the past records are any criterion. Anyhow we will guarantee a circulation exceeding 25,000 for 1902, and the rate of 10 cents a line flat, makes a low one. Circulates from Nova Scotia on the north, all through Canada and the United States into old Mexico, and in every State and Territory of the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans. Samples free with request on printed stationery.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

The Mail Order Journal: "The Cooking Club's circulation is healthily growing every month. It can claim also that in addition to quantity it dishes up a delectable quality."

The Criterion: "The Cooking Club is a thoroughly up-to-date magazine on foods and cooking."

General Information: "The only practical magazine on cooking that we have ever seen that meets the requirements of the family in moderate circumstances."

Perhaps it would be policy to say that the American Newspaper Directory is second only to the Lord & Thomas Directory. As a matter of plain truth, however, there's only one. The American Newspaper Directory is the Webster's Dictionary of advertising. As for its integrity, I don't believe that any fair-minded man ever questions Mr. Rowell's motives, be he publisher or advertiser, and I have absolutely no sympathy whatever with the howl that is raised against his efforts to put circulation upon an honest, open basis. —*Daniel M. The Why of Poverty

A POWERFUL BOOK

By G. H. Hubbard.

THE social problem is largely the problem of poverty. This is one of the serious ills that beset life even in the best of modern circumstances, and clamors loudly for cure. All will agree that the secret of cure lies first of all in the discovery of cause. A false diagnosis almost certainly leads to false treatment. This book is a diagnosis. In it the writer confines himself strictly to a study of the causes of poverty, believing that if these can be clearly and forcibly revealed the poor have in them the key to their own emancipation. To him who honestly wishes to cure the evil one fact is worth more than uncounted fancies and theories. The medicine may not always be sweet to the taste, but it is wholesome and health-giving.

CLOTH, 12mo, ONE DOLLAR.

May be ordered through any bookseller or will be sent postpaid, for the price, by the Abbey Press, Publishers, of 114 Fifth Avenue, New York, with agencies in London, Montreal, and elsewhere, who always issue interesting works.

CIRCULATION, 195,000.

Rate: 75 cents a line.

FORWARD's circulation this fall (October, 1902), is about twenty thousand more than it was a year ago. There is a reason for the rapid increase of the circulation of FORWARD, from about sixty thousand in 1897 to two hundred thousand in the present year. You will know the reason when you see the paper and compare it with other similar publications.

FORWARD has about the strongest constituency, that is the most steadfast and enthusiastic, of any paper in the country.

FORWARD must be a good advertising medium for these reasons. Our subscribers like us and will be guided by us. Consequently we are particularly and scrupulously careful not to mislead them. No medical, "free," or (as a rule) investment advertisements are inserted. Our space is limited and we have room only for the very best and most reliable advertisers.

The Pittsburg Christian Advocate

CIRCULATION 27,500.

Organ of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia. Has a much larger circulation than any other religious paper published in Pittsburg. Rates of advertising exceptionally low. One time rate a little over a half cent and yearly rate less than one third of a cent for each thousand of circulation. Published every Thursday. Established 1834.

The Pittsburg Christian Advocate is the only religious paper through which advertisers can reach the large and influential Methodist Episcopal population of Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia, and the statistics show that in the field of its circulation there are 237,000 members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a constituency of more than a million people.

The Methodist Episcopal press differs from that of most other denominations in that each paper has its own peculiar field of circulation, which is not reached to any appreciable extent by any other, and, as the field of The Advocate as defined above is one of the richest and most prosperous in our country, advertisers should always include it in their lists.
